Judge J. D. Tuggle, in a speech bristling with humor, said that fifty years ago woman's suffrage was look ed upon as one of the jokes of the day, as was prohibition. Today, both are accomplished facts. The speaker said that if any person asks how a lady can vote, the answer is, "just the same as a man." The responsibility, privilege and duty have now been passed on to the women and it is only a question as to how they will use the vote. As American citizens, he urged the most earnest that and study of the questions of the day Government changes as the people change. There will always be burning issues to confront us and respon sibility to hand down to future generations.

When it comes to thinking, do your own, draw on your recollection don't be led off by promises. Look to the history of your country as one of your guides.

While President Wilson promised to keep us out of war, the biggest thing he did keep us out of was sugar. Eight years ago he promised to lower prices. "It is a good thing I don't cuss. There would be a blue streak in the house." Before the war one could get a good family steak for 25cts. Now one can't get enough to bait the mouse trap. Then we had low prices and good times. In six months after the Democrats came in the railroad sidings were full of idle cars. They would have been full yet if the devil had not broken loose in Europe.

The war has been over some time and they have made no move to bring down prices.

The speaker predicted a 50,000 majority in Kentucky for the Republican nominees.

Congressman J. M. Robsion said he was glad to be able to talk to his neighbors and friends including so Congressman Robsion then analyzed the voting power of the various nations and conclusively proved that the United States would be at the mercy of the British Empire and that its vote could be nullified by Liberia.

OUR JOB

The league of nations is nothing more or less than a scheme to get the United States to fight the battles of Europe until such time as those nations have recuperated from their exhaustion of the World War. Without the United States the league is impotent. With the United States the league would at once become virile-virile with the blood and wealth of America.

SERVABO FIDEM

The way in which the women of the country are supporting candidates who voted against suffrage in the Senate or House shows that they are broad minded enough to judge a public official from his whole record while in office, and are not forming their opinions from consideration of an isolated vote he may have cast. The faith in women, which the Republicans of Congress and the States demonstrated when they bestowed suffrage upon them, was not misplaced.

Dr. Livingstone Farrand, Chairman of the Central Committee of the American Red Cross who recently returned after a month spent in Paris, Geneva and London, conferring with Red Cross representatives and reviewing reports from the various countries in Eastern Europe in which the Red Cross has been and is active, says:

"Accurate figures are necessarily not to be obtained in the present confusion, but at the same time certain broad facts stand out. Economic reconstruction is proceeding slowly but is evident when compared with the conditions which immediately followed the Armistice in 1918. In general, food supply is improving and is no longer the overwhelming problem as it was a year ago. It is clear, however, that in Poland and Austria the coming winter will find a marked shortage and widespread suffering is certain.

"General relief must be continued in those countries and at certain other points until further stability is reached. There is, however, one problem that overshadows all others and which the world must be brot to realize. That is the problem of the children of Europe. Red Cross estimates, which are necessarily uncertain, but extremely conservative, indicate at least eleven million children in Europe fatherless from war and who face the next few years without hope of adequate care unless outside assistance is given.

"I have actually gained fifteen ounds in weight since I started taking Tanlac," said Chalmers L. Bolles, 832 South Thirty-Fourth St., Louisville, Ky.

"Two and a half years ago I commenced suffering from indigestion. My appetite was completely gone, and even when I did force down a little something it would lie like a rock in my stomach, turn sour and bloat me up with gas until I was as tight as a drum.

"I had awful cramps in my stomach after meals, I would roll and toss in the bed all night long without sleeping a wink. I kept going from bad to worse until finally I stopped work for two weeks, thinking a rest would help me; but did not get any better.

"About this time I read a statement in a newspaper and decided to give it a trial. Before I had taken all of the first bottle my improvement was simply remarkable. While I have taken only seven bottles all my troubles are completely gone. It has been over a month since I stopped taking Tanlac but I can eat a good, hearty meal of onions cabbage meat, potatoes, or just anything I want and never have a sign of indigestion. Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican neminee for President, is thoroughly familiar with the imposing stone and can "make-up" rapidly and skillfully. Here he is shown "making-up" forms in the composing room of his newspaper, the Marion (O.) Star.

A DAY WITH SENATOR HARDING

Calm, Steady, Determined, the American Who Is Leading the Republican Party to Victory Goes About the Business of the Campaign in His Modest Office in Marion.

By WILLIAM HOSTER.

The American people will decide, of course. If they can visualize the vital principle which is at stake-the spirit which is at once the keynote and the mainspring of the campaign upon which the nation has entered, there can be no doubt of the result,

It isn't a thing that can be carried about the country, and exhibited from the rear end of a Pullman car. It is wholly apart from the red fire, blaring bands and stump oratory of oldfashioned campaigns. The issue, in short, goes deep down to that principle which has been the mainspring of the national life since the days of Lexington and Concord; and the patriotic alike, by taking counsel with himself. will find it imbedded in his own heart.

Here in Marion, O., you get a concrete exposition of that vital principle. It is good to come to Marion and get the true perspective. You are brought anew, here, to the realization that the country is in process of electing a chief executive to guide the destinies of 120,000,000 people for the four years ensuing from March 4 next: that the very serious business of bringing about what a European observer described as "a revolution by due process of law," is going forward in all sincerity in his office. with a proper regard for the dignity and importance of the task.

There is reserve force in his bearing, determination in his jaws, character in his mouth, kindly sympathy in his eyes.

As you listen to him talk here in the Christian dining room, or later, in a speech to a visiting delegation from the front porch of his home, this conviction is strengthened. UNION COLLEGE NOTES

The Junior Academy Class of U. C. presents its apologies for its belated Mountain Advocate. It promises a every issue from now on till the end of the school year.

George Ryder, as editor-in-chief, and Jane Keith and Joseph Metcalf as associates will furnish the Notes for the Fall Term.

We are beginning a year that promises to be the best in the history of the school. The enrollment is the largest ever at this time; the spirit of the students is strong and wholesome. The girls' Self-Government Association is re-organized with Thelma Morehead as House-President, Ida Mae Smith as Vice-President and Love Morris as Secretary. The quality of the work they have done thus far is above the standard of previous years and the boys have followed the good example set by the girls and have organized a Student Government for Stevenson Hall. The Executive Committee consistsof Capt Daugh Smith, Lieut. Cheslie Franklin, Lieut. Jakie Howard, Lieut. How ard Lacy and Lieut. Darrell Archibald. The study, rising and retiring hours are designated by the bugle and we are expecting a good year during which each one will be

The Gymnasium for which we have been wishing so many long months is finished at last and is the most beautiful building on the Campus besides being one of the best 'gyms' in the State. The equipment is complete from the swimming pool and showers in the basement to the running track in the gallery. All students are required to take physihold stock and securities in a capac- cal training two periods a week, the ity other than that of bona fide own- boys under Mr. W. B. The parlors of Speed and Stevenson Halls have been made more atstock, bonds, or other securities than tractive by the addition of several splendid pieces of furniture of Mission style for Stevenson and dark wicker wth tapestry for Speed. All appreciate this pleasant change.

The band has organized again for the year under our Prof. Ahler. We shall probably have twenty-five or thirty pieces.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets that are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full ef-fectiveness until the liver is made thorfectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess colomel tallets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed ime with a swallow of water—that's il. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calotaba only in fine, with a hearty appetite for break-fast. Druggists sell Calotabs only in original scaled packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheer-fully refunded if you do not find them delightful.—(Adv.)

Which Dance Music is Best? BY JULIUS LENZBERG

Recently I attended a dancing party. During an intermission, I overheard the conversation of two girls seated near me. One said:
"That's a good orchestra, they keep excellent time, but for some reason I'm always tired-out after dancing to an evening of their music. I wonder why?"

Haven't you often felt the same way after dancing parties and also "wondered why?" Much of the success of the dance depends upon the orchestra. Much of the success of the orchestra depends upon their complete possession of the most important essential in play-ing dance music, a perfect rhythm. believe that we have introduced the perfect rhythm in all dance we have played for Edison Re-Creations.

JULIUS LENZBERG

The girl at the dancing party became weary before the dance was over, not because she was dancing too much, but because the orchestra members were ab ly mechanical in their playing; they did not "work-up" the dance numbers. It is just as necessary to give proper interpretation to a dance number as to a symphonic or concert selection. Many orchestra leaders have the mistaken idea that a superabundance of ging" and loud playing is the proper way to "put over" a dance number. Loud and "raggy" playing continued throughout a dance becomes monotonous and unpleas-ant to the dancers. The using of little accents here and there, p issimo strains alternating with crescendos is the proper way to "work-up" a dance number and at the same time retard that tired feeling the girl at the party spoke

The majority of dance compositions cannot be most effectively played as written. Therefore you will find that the orchestras you like best are those that feature certain instruments or combinations of instruments in certain strains. The orchestra leader must know how to inspire his men most effectively. The successful playing of dance music is a specialty, so much so, that many of the best known orchestral musicians before the public today are impossible as members of dance orchestras.

The noisy "jazz," so much in vogue during the past few seasons is dying out and I believe that the day of the noisy "Jazz Bands" is a day of the past. However, I do believe that a little bit of "jass" music introduced where permissi ble in dance selections is effective and approved by the majority of the followers of the modern dance. The love of the dance is rapidly becoming more universal and I be-lieve that the public is absolutely demanding the best dance music.

MOST people know that the musical enjoyment which they get out of a phonograph depends upon one thing. That thing is the phonograph's realism.

This picture shows the best way to test a phonograph's realism. Miss Betsy Lane Shepherd, the famous soprano, is standing beside the New Edison, and singing in direct comparison with the New Edison's RE-CREATION of her voice.

185 audiences, aggregating more than 100,000 people, have actually heard this comparison. None could distinguish between her living voice and its RE-CREATION.

This is one of the phenomenal records of realism. The New Edison holds all other records of realism, too, because no other phonograph attempts this comparison-test—or could sustain it.

The NEW EDISON

-the way we use in our store!-the Realism Test! Test the New Edison's Realism against the pleasure you know music can bring.

Tell us what kind of voice or instrument gives you truest musical enjoyment. Listen while we play your favorite on the New Edison. The Realism Test will enable you to gauge whether the New Edison's RE-CREATION gives you all of this enjoyment.

This is your test! It will help you determine what the New Edison's Realism means, in terms of your own musical enjoyment.

Ask for it! The "Personal Favorites" Realism Test.

Another thing to ask about is our Budget Plan. It disposes of the money question, in a way that will appeal to your common-sense and to your pocketbook.

COX'S STATEMENT TO LABOR PROVED TO BE GROSSLY INACCURATE

Claim He Had "Never Pressed a Soldier Into an Industrial Controversy" Not True.

USED OHIO MILITIA TWICE

Question Not About Merits of Strike or Need for Military, but as to Truthfulness.

By WILLIAM HOSTER.

Columbus, O .- Governor James M. Cox's boasted labor record has been shattered by his own official act, Claiming that he had "never pressed a soldier into an industrial controversy," the record of his action as governor of Ohio in mobilizing the National Guard of this state for service in the steel strike of 1919 has been produced in flat contradiction of his assertion.

Not once, but on two occasions was the Ohio guard, at an expense of $23,-000 to the people of Ohio, railed into service and sent to Akron and held in readiness for action in near. Canton.

The question is not as to the merits of the strike or as to the necessity for the presence of the guard within striking distance of Canton, but concerns wholly the truthfulness of Governor Cox's statement, obviously made to win favor among the workingmen. The facts as brought out in the speech of Republican State Chairman George H. Clark, formally opening the campaign at Columbus, are as follows:

Ordered Guard Out Twice, After the steel strike had progressed for some days, with more or less disorder, Governor Cox on September 28, 1919, suddenly ordered the mobilization of the guard at Akron. A period of quiet followed, and the troops were withdrawn. And then again suddenly on October 25 the guard was once more mobilized and sent to Akron, and while It lay there at that strategic point awaiting a summons into action staff officers representing Governor Cox kept close watch on the situation in Can-

In his speech at Wheeling, W. Va., on the night of August 14 Governor

"For six years I have been in executive authority in the great industrial state of Ohio. During all this time ! have never pressed a soldier into an industrial controversy."

The question is, did Governor Cox tell the truth? Answering this question, Chairman Clark in his Columbus speech displayed to his audience a photographic copy of Special Order No. 52 issued from the Adjutant General's department of the State of Ohio, dated Columbus, October 25, 1919, which designated certain officers for immediate active service and paragraph 4 of which reads:

Facts Presented.

"In anticipation of the development of a rioting condition at Canton, O., the Governor of Ohio has deemed it necessary to assemble a sufficient number of thorities at Canton, O., and has so directed the Adjutant General of Ohio, who pursuant to such order, directs Colonel Benson W. Hough to proceed without delay to Akron, O., to take command of all state troops upon arrival at Akron, O., and to hold them in readiness for duty, awaiting further Supplementing this documentary c copies of headlines from Canton, O., newspapers of concurrent date, which And, "Governor orders troops for duty here, Ohio soldiers re-porting to armories following trouble."

Truth Should Be Known. sertion when all of the facts with resecond, I like to greet my friends at gard to his mobilization of the guard the door myself." were still fresh in the public mind, at least in Ohio. Of course it is not to be expected that workingmen elsewhere with the circumstances, and it was for hat reason that State Chairman Clark ne people all over the country to be nformed that Governor Cox's assertion hat he "never pressed a soldier into in industrial controversy" was absotely at varience with the truth.

Publication of these official facts has itterly confounded the advocates of overnor Cox's election, who have been aking a special plea to the workingmen on the basis of his West Virginia speech. The revelations as to Mr. Cox's mobilization of the troops are being compared with the sworn statements of liquor league contributions to is gubernatorial campaign fund in refutation of his statement that "the wets have never contributed one dollar to any of my campaigns." In both cases the point is made that the issue s not as to the merit of his mobilization of the troops, on the one hand, or as to the status of the wet and dry question, on the other hand, but that the real issue is as to the degree of truth and accuracy absolutely necessary in one who seeks to be president of the United States.

AMERICAN WOMEN DOING FULL SHARE

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, Wife of Republican Nominee, Praises Her Sex.

DISCUSSES HIGH LIVING COSTS

Declares in an Interview That Present High Prices Can Se Reduced by Votes.

By Estelline Bennett.

Mrs. Coolidge sat in a day coach on a slow local train between Boston and Northampton and talked about her husband, her children, the high cost of kidney trouble for years." living and the domestic problem. The conductor and the brakeman stopped as they went through the car to talk them in her frequent journeys back and forth to keep in touch with her children in school in Northampton and her husband at his duties in the state capitol. She knitted diligently as she talked. During those trips she knits all the winter stockings and sweaters for her two boys—John, aged fourteen, and Calvin, twelve. "Too many people are afraid of work," she thinks is the fundamental reason for the high cost of living and the much discussed domestic problem. "I think the only thing the women of the country can do now," she said, with the quiet conviction of one who has thought it all out, "is to vote for the men whom they think will make the right laws and see that they are enforced. They have done all they can in the home. I think the reason there is so much sugar on hand now is because people are doing without it in their homes.

Women Have Done Their Share.

"American women have done, and still are doing, their full share. They have sacrificed and saved and substituted and made over. But that isn't enough. They'll have to vote the high cost of living down.

"Here in New England, where it is a little hard for us to give up pie," she laughed at the tradition that has become a joke, "we have learned to use all kinds of cheaper substitutes for butter and lard, and in my own house hold we have experimented with different fruit combinations to find something we like and that will take the least sugar. Apples must be tart to make good pies, but we have found that blueberries take less sugar and the combination of apples and blueberries, half and half, is delicious, requires less sweetening than apples and has more character than the blueber.

The domestic problem, which is closing homes all over the country and in-creasing the hotel population, is something of which Mrs. Coolidge think she has no personal, practical knowl edge.
